

Carbon County Destination Scavenger Hunt

1. Not only can you ski, snow board, and tube when you visit me, but you can also enjoy zip lining. Stop by my pub & grill for a bite to eat or maybe you'll get to dance the night away at a wedding hosted in my ballroom over-looking the mountain side.
2. At my restaurant you can delight in a treat in my enclosed patio. My worker bee's are sure to keep you satisfied!
3. You can find me, an old fashioned ice cream and soda fountain shop, across from a park. You can also multi-task and wash your clothes in the laundromat attached to me while you have a sundae.
4. I am a bakery located on one of the main streets in my town. I am known for delicious pershings, beautiful cakes & cupcakes, and on occasion, gourmet milkshakes!
5. Rock concerts, the American Cancer Society Telethon, weddings, and more! All of these can are held in my venue. I also have a restaurant located in my upstairs with a 50 mile view!
6. Here you will find one of earth's most delicate winged creatures safe and sound. I offer education tours and courses, and opportunities to stand amongst and watch the metamorphosis come to life.
7. I am a 1912 Olympian Athlete. I was champion who defied all odds in this historical time period. Here you will find a statue and memorial to commemorate my life.
8. I housed the infamous Molly Maguires in the 1800s after they were accused of some very serious crimes. I am now a museum and historical landmark! Don't forget to check out cell 17.....
9. Firetrucks, police cars, and ambulances are all manufactured in my state of the art plant. I also offer parts and services for your own vehicles too!
10. I first opened in 1855 and left abandoned in 1972. My purpose was to be harvested so that others could have fuel and energy. Today I offer tours of the depths of where men used to once work and you can even walk along the "mule-way".
